

CHAMPIONSHIP PERFORMANCE BEGINS AT

Harris Farms

Ward 'n Jerry

The San Luis Rey Stakes (G3) victor bred by owners Mr. and Mrs. Larry D. Williams, is the fourth stakes winner from his dam and a half-brother to Tamarando (G1).

Fashionably Fast

The back-to-back winner of this year's California Cup Sprint and Tiznow Stakes was bred by Harris Farms, co-owner with Per Antonsen and John Nicoletti.

For nearly six decades, Harris Farms has provided a full range of services for horses of all ages and an outstanding stallion roster highlights the farms' commitment to California's breeding industry.

The current 12-stallion roster includes the sires of repeat Horse of the Year Spiced Perfection and 2019 dual champion Acclimate, in addition to graded stakes winners with first foals arriving now and first-crop 2-year-olds racing this year.

Lucky Pulpit continues to be a force in the industry as the leading sire of 2020 California-bred black type winners: Ward 'n Jerry (G3) and Fashionably Fast ($449,745).
